3 II. MOTION

4 COMES NOW Ronald G. Brown, the trustee in the above entitled case, and moves the Court for
5 an order as follows: (a) confirming that the real property located at 868 Montcrest Drive, Redding,
6 California (the “Montcrest Property”) is property of the estate; (b) amending the May 16, 2011 order
7 authorizing the Trustee’s employment of Rob Middleton and the House of Realty, Inc. (Docket No. 163)
8 to include the Montcrest Property among the property for which the Trustee may employ Mr. Middleton
9 as his real estate agent; and (c) authorizing the Trustee to execute any agreements, instruments or any
10 other documents which he deems, in his sole discretion, necessary to carry out the requested order.
11

12 A. Relevant Background

13 The relevant history and background, on a chronological basis, related to this motion may be
14 summarized as follows:
15

16 The present case was commenced under Chapter 11 on August 19, 2010. At the time of filing,
17 the Debtor and his then spouse, Jill Borodin, were engaged in dissolution proceedings in King County
18 Superior Court (Cause No. 09-3-02955-9-SEA, hereinafter, the “Dissolution Action”). On October 22, 19 2010, Ms. Borodin filed a motion for appointment of a Chapter 11 trustee [Docket No. 32]. In the 20 motion, Ms. Borodin stated that a trustee needed to be appointed for, among other reasons, the 21 following: (a) “With hundreds of thousands of dollars at stake, and the possibility of recovering large
22 sums as fraudulently and/or preferentially transferred, the cost of appointing a trustee in this case is
23 well-justified.” [Docket No. 32 at page 9, lines 2 - 8]; and (b) “[D]ue to the tremendous interest of the 24 creditors of the estate to recover substantial sums as fraudulent and/or preferential transfers, it is in the
25 best interests of creditors that the Debtor remain under the Bankruptcy Court’s supervision in a Chapter

11.” [Id. at 10, lines 1 - 8.]¹

Ms. Borodin filed an ex parte motion on November 9, 2010 requesting confirmation that the automatic stay was not in effect pursuant to §362(c)(4) (due to two Chapter 11 case filings of the Debtor within the year prior to filing the present case). On November 12, 2010, the Court entered an order on Ms. Borodin’s ex parte motion wherein it held that “The automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. §362(a) is not in effect.” Docket No. 61.

A divorce decree was entered in the Dissolution Action on December 14, 2010 (the, “Decree”). A copy of the relevant excerpts of the Decree is attached as Exhibit A to the Declaration of Trustee’s Attorney in Support of Motion for Order Confirming That Real Property Is Property of the Estate (hereinafter, the “Declaration”, a copy of which is on file with the Court and available via ECF). The Decree characterized and divided the marital property. The Decree recognized that the Montcrest Property was community property and awarded it to Ms. Borodin. The Decree further provided for the Debtor to transfer the Montcrest Property to Ms. Borodin and if he did not, for a third party to be appointed under CR 70 to make the transfer.

The Bankruptcy Court granted Ms. Borodin’s motion for appointment of a trustee on December 22, 2010. Ronald G. Brown was thereafter appointed trustee.

Post-bankruptcy, the Debtor transferred his interest in the Montcrest Property and various other pieces of real property without Court authorization (hereinafter collectively the, “Transfers”). The Trustee commenced an adversary proceeding to avoid the Transfers (Adversary Proceeding # 11-01954 which is hereinafter called, the “Adversary Action”).² The Court subsequently entered a series of

² The Adversary Action was commenced after the date of entry of the order, upon the Trustee’s motion, converting the case to Chapter 7 (March 11, 2011). Ronald G. Brown was appointed as the Chapter 7 trustee.

1 default orders and default judgments avoiding the Transfers. Docket Nos. 30, 82 and 123.³ In the 2 Findings of Fact Conclusion of Law and Default Judgment [Docket No. 30], the Court ordered, among
3 other things, that the Montcrest Property together with the other real property subject to the Action “is 4 quieted in the name of the trustee” as against defendant, Keywest Financial LLC.

5 The Trustee and Ms. Borodin negotiated a settlement, subject to Court approval, regarding the 6 disposition of the Montcrest Property. The main terms of that settlement may be summarized as 7 follows: The parties would stipulate that the Montcrest Property is property of the estate for purposes of 8 the settlement and the Adversary Action. The Trustee would sell the property and obtain any further
9 necessary orders to avoid and wipe out all post-petition liens relating thereto. The net proceeds of sale
10 would be used to pay the legal fees related to the Trustee’s avoidance of liens and sale of the property.
11 The balance of the net proceeds would be paid to Ms. Borodin except to the extent of $10,000 which 12 would be applied to pay any community property claims Ms. Borodin was ordered to pay in the 13 Dissolution Action.⁴ After notice and hearing, the Court denied the motion to approve the settlement.
14 The Trustee subsequently pursued negotiations with Ms. Borodin regarding a revised settlement which 15 were unsuccessful. Since negotiations broke down, the Trustee has further researched the status of the 16 Montcrest Property and concluded that it more than likely is property of the estate.⁵ Accordingly, he
17 seeks an order confirming that the Montcrest Property is property of estate so that he can move forward
18 with liquidating it (the last known asset of the estate) and close the case.
19
21
22
23

24

³ The Court entered a default judgment in the Action avoiding the transfer of the Montcrest Property against Defendant,
25 Evergreen Home Mortgage Services, Inc. Docket No. 123. In addition, the Court entered an order of default as to the only 26 other known party claiming any title to the Montcrest Property, the 868 Montcrest Drive Family Trust.

27 ⁴ As of the time of the settlement, there did not appear to be any claims filed in the bankruptcy that fall within that category.

⁵ This represents a change in the Trustee’s understanding and position. In prior pleadings, the Trustee indicated his understanding that the Montcrest Property was not property of the bankruptcy estate but, notwithstanding same, the equity in the property had to be used to pay the community claims of the bankruptcy estate.

NOTICE OF HEARING - 4

KRIEGMAN LAW OFFICE, PLLC

1 Rob Middleton has served as the Trustee's real estate agent pursuant to order entered on May 16,
2 2011 [Docket No. 163, hereinafter the "May 16th Order"]. With Mr. Middleton's assistance, upon Court
3 authorization, the Trustee sold two properties located in Redding. Based upon informal consultations
4 with Mr. Middleton, the Trustee believes that the Montcrest Property has a value of about $205,000.
5 The Trustee has reviewed a title report for the Montcrest Property. It shows that the it ostensibly the 6 property is titled in the name of Terrington Davies Capital Management, LLC ("Terrington") and that
7 the only encumbrance against the Property, taking into account the avoidance of Transfers described
8 above, is a purported post-bankruptcy deed of trust for the benefit of Ptarmigan Real Estate Fund LLC
9 ("Ptarmigan") for $18,000. Terrington and Ptarmigan are entities used by the Debtor to, among other
10 things, carryout the transfer of the Debtor's interest in the Montcrest Property on an unauthorized basis.
11 Both entities are solely owned by the Debtor. If the Court grants the present motion, the Trustee will 12 employ Mr. Middleton as his real estate agent to sell the Montcrest Property on the same terms proposed 13 in the motion upon which the May 16th Order was entered (providing for a commission of 6% of the 14 gross sale price). A copy of Mr. Middleton's proposed listing agreement is attached to the Declaration
15 as Exhibit B.⁶

18 B. Analysis

19 Under well established bankruptcy law as of the date of bankruptcy filing, any separate property
20 of Mr. Grossman as well as any property of the Grossman/Borodin marital community became property
21 of the bankruptcy estate. 11 USC §541(a). Thus among other real property, the Montcrest property,
22 which was indisputably property of the marital community (a fact confirmed by the Decree), became 23 property of the bankruptcy estate on the date of filing. The Decree was entered after the bankruptcy but

26 _____
27 ⁶ The copy of the agreement attached as Exhibit B is in substantially the form expected which the Trustee expects to execute. The Trustee, however, reserves all rights to revise the agreement to the extent he deems it necessary and appropriate to comply with applicable bankruptcy law.

1 before any trustee was appointed. There is nothing of which the Trustee is aware in the Decree or order
2 confirming that the stay was not in effect that stripped title to the Montcrest Property from the 3 bankruptcy estate. A Bankruptcy Court's order granting relief from the stay is strictly construed. See, In
4 re Wardrobe, 559 F.3d 932, 935 (9th Cir. 2009). In any event, Bankruptcy Courts have original and
5 exclusive jurisdiction over property of a bankruptcy estate. 28 U.S.C. §§1334(a) and 1334 (e). See, In
6 re William N. Simon, 153 F.3d 991 (9th Cir.1998). The Superior Court thus did not have jurisdiction,
7 notwithstanding that the stay was not in effect, to enter an order removing the Montcrest Property from 8 the bankruptcy estate. Furthermore, neither Ms. Borodin nor any third party have the power to transfer
9 title of the Montcrest Property. Only the Trustee has the power subject to his avoidance of the Debtor's
10 unauthorized post-bankruptcy transfer thereof.⁷

12
13 The Montcrest Property is thus property of the bankruptcy estate and the Trustee is entitled to 14 entry of an ordering confirming same.

15 Any party who desires any further information regarding this motion, should contact the 16 undersigned.

17 Conclusion

18 Therefore, the Trustee requests that the Court enter an order granting this motion.
